

Official Cape Town FIFA Fan Fest

Diary Notice – Daily Headline Acts
Grand Parade. ENTRY IS FREE

Date: 11 June

Time: 18h00

Jimmy Dludlu, one of the most acclaimed and influential afro-jazz guitarists South Africa has ever produced will be the headline performance at the opening of the tournament on Friday 11 June. Fans can also watch the games between South Africa vs Mexico at 16h00 and France vs Uruguay at 23h30 on FIFA's special 74sqm screen. The opening ceremony kicks off at 19h15.

Date: 12 June

Time: 18h00

Zimbabwean born Oliver 'Tuku' Mtukudzi will light up the stage with his husky voice and distinctive style known to his fans as Tuku Music. Don't miss him on Saturday 12 June. Live games can be viewed on the special FIFA 74sqm screen at 13h30, 16h00 and 20h30.

Date: 13 June

Time: 18h00

Cape Town born Dominic Peters and David Poole, better known to their fans as Goldfish, whose genre defying mix of jazzy house beats headline the day's celebrations. Football, family and fun are the order of the day. Party through the day or catch any of the three games live on the special FIFA 74sqm screen.

Date: 14 June

Time: 18h00

The hip hop soaked crazy tunes of BLK Sunshine takes to the stage today at 18h00 with the unique and distinctive electric strings and Afro-jazz beats of CODA in support on stage at 19h15. Jam to these two unique groups and rally with our Netherland football fans as they paint the Grand Parade 'Oranje' in support of their team.

Date: 15 June

Time: 18h00

Luso Fest is the name of the game – come celebrate all things Portuguese and Brazilian to the contemporary jazz and world music beat of Mozambique born Moreira Chonguica aka Moreira Project. Back this up at 19h15 with the vibrant melting pot of African rhythms of Tucan Tucan and you will be partying from the first kick-off at 13h30 to the last game at 20h30.

Date: 16 June

Time: 18h00

16 June is National Youth Day and to celebrate this day R&B sensation Loyiso will jam out tunes while locals and visitors alike attempt to make history. Between 15 000 and 25 000 people will rehearse and dance the Biggest Diski Dance to date under the instruction of Dance4Life. Taking place in front of the special FIFA 74sqm screen at 19h15 on the Grand Parade, young and old are invited to come and celebrate with us.

Date: 17 June

Time: 18h00

Venue: Grand Parade

Tickets: Entry is free

International music group Liquideep will hit the stage with their mix of house music and African influenced beats. Hip hop, acoustic and soul British born Paul Drew aka Plan B is in support and what better way to recover from the public holiday. And of course, all the games are televised live on the special FIFA 74sqm screen.

Date: 18 June

Time: 18h00

Whether your ending your week or starting your weekend be sure not to miss the 21st century Pan African party beats of The Rudimentals. With their unique brew of rocking 'Mbaquanga' riffs mixed with jazz and blues tones they set the bar for the weekend lineup. Catch Germany vs Serbia at 13h30, Slovenia vs USA at 16h00 or make your way to the Cape Stadium to catch England play Algeria at 20h30.

CALL CAPE TOWN TOURISM ON 021 487 6800 or email info@capetown.travel